Best Urban Hotels 2015: the shortlist

TRAVEL / 10 SEP 2015

Tribute, Hong Kong

The debut hotel from British architect Alex Jones, Tribute champions Hong Kong's culture and history through quirky details such as a lobby snack bar inspired by the local dim sum carts. Located in the fast-gentrifying Yau Ma Tei neighbourhood, on the Kowloon peninsula, the hotel has no restaurant, but in-room service delivers some of the best local fare, including eatery Sham Tsai Kee' famous wonton noodles. Grab the hotel's pocked-sized map, which charts 24 of the area's essential sites within a 15-minute walk of the property.

Address: 4 Tung Fong Street; tributehotels.com; Rates from: HK$1,300 ($168)
